A CONGRESSMAN'S LIFE.

The life of a Congressman is not all duck soup and lilies of the valley.
The people at home may think so, but the people at home are laboring under a delusion. The following was the time table of one of the Congressman along about the last of July:

7 a. m.—Breakfast.

7:15 to 9—Reading letters from constituents who wanted something for nothing.9 to 11:30—Dictating diplomatic replies and regrets.11:30 to 12—Conferences with 20 district political leaders, all of whom have journeyed to Washington to land one job for 20 different men.

12 to 12:02—Attend Congress.

12:02 to 12:07—Luncheon in the House restaurant with said district leaders.12:07 to 2—Showing folks from home about the Capitol and trying to make engagements for them to see the President.3 to 5:30—Listening to claims of 147 candidates for the Postmaster-ships.5:30 to 6—Trying to send all of the contestants away satisfied.

6 to 6:15—Dinner at home.

6:15 to 7:30—Arguing with man from home who wants to be consul at the Fiji Islands.7:30 to 12:30—Listening to punk speeches at a banquet.

1 a. m.—Lights out.—Exchange.

The above is credited to "Exchange" but it was clipped from State Topics, Congressman Jeff Mc-Lemore's paper, and Congressman Jeff ought to know the daily program. It reads like a terrible grind, that daily program, nerve racking and disturbing, yet there are always patriotism plenty and to spare who are willing to shoulder the load. That $20.50 per day salary, the dazzling lights, the honor, the glory, the "crowded life" appear to recompense sufficient for the trials the poor overworked and overburdened congressmen have to bear."Are you a lover of beautiful things?" asks the Bryan Daily Eagle.
You can just bet your boots we are.
We are enthusiastic lovers of the rich, red watermelon with its shiny green rind; we love the lovely odor-ous cantaloupe and the translucent pear preserve; we also expend a large amount of our affections upon the beautifully crinkled cracklin bread, built dogger style, and have a leaning towards the color scheme produced by a large dish of turp green flanked with a well-smoked hog jowl.
Oh, yes, we are lovers of the beautiful all right.—Mineral Wells Index.Great, guns, man you have done started something. You have uncorked the recollections of last fall and winter, and while it gives us pleasure to contemplate what the future may hold in store for us, still you know a "sorrow" crown of sorrow is remembering happier things." If Ed Blackshear of the Navasota Examiner sees what you have "wrote," he will be miserable.The people of Denmark as a whole, are said to be opposed to the sale of the Danish West Indies to the United States, while the inhabitants of the Islands are anxious for the sale to be made. If the people of the Islands wish to come under the jurisdiction of the United States government and cast their lot with us, the deal should go through. They should be allowed to choose their form of government.
Their expression on the subject is in accordance with one of our most cherished institutions, the doctrine of States Rights.The Eagle doffs its cap to Secretary McElroy in securing from the postal authorities at Washington the definite statement that free mail delivery will be established in Bryan on November 1st. This will be a long step forward in converting Bryan intoa city and one which has been earnestly sought by the people of Bryan for a number of years. It is now up to the people of the city to back Secretary McElroy up in the work by building sidewalks and otherwise complying with the postal regulations so the service will be permanent.The Franklin Petroleum Company have commenced drilling for oil near Easterly and at this time they have reached a depth of 600 feet, with fine prospects for oil. This company is backing their judgement, in that they have the money in the banks to back their operations.—Franklin Central Texan."Here's hopin'" our neighbors make a strike, but from a selfish standpoint we hope it will be gas. One of Bryan's greatest needs is a gas system and with a natural gas field as close as Franklin it could be piped here in a short time and at small expense.The Mexican situation has reduced itself to where it is to be settled by a commission. The commissioners to draw a good, fat salary of course.
All questions go that way now—we mean the salary route, but suppose it is all right, as Jones is still paying the freight.OBSERVATIONS BY THE WAYNow that we have had the assurance of Free mail delivery in the city of Bryan we find that side walk building is going to be necessary to keep same after it is started. The Eagle is delighted to notice that a very large number of property owners along the streets that are being paved have let contracts for sidewalks. They are already being built and those who have not already contracted should do so while the paving and curb and gutter work is going on in front of your property. The contractors can do the work cheaper and they can do it better now. If you have not a side walk now, put one in and as we have said many times before, "let's get out of the mud."For some reason which we will not attempt to say the work which has been done on the new Post Office side walk was all for naught, as a force of workmen are busy today tearing same out. But there is one consolation we have, on the first of November it will be the postmen that have to do the "rock hopping" and the "mud wading" and not the citizens who are forced to go for their mail. One man was heard to say that he thought the government was awful particular about their work but did not seem to worry about how long the citizens of Bryan were forced to wade through mud. It was suggested by another that this contract should have been let with the building and the inconvenience that has been caused would have been avoided. But what's the use, they will have a walk some day. Maybe.A force of workmen are busy today tearing out the partition wall between the Myers building and the old Rohde building where the new Office building is to be erected by Mr. Astin. The old wall was a good one in its time but had to come down to meet the demand for better things.
In demolishing this wall a sign was destroyed which read "Frank Clark, Groceries." This sign was painted long before the old Rhode building was erected which was forty years ago. Old timers here are the only ones that can recall the day when this sign meant something. The paint used was undoubtedly of a fine grade as the sign could be read even now three blocks away.It seems that every building owner on Main street is determined to do something to make Bryan a better and a better looking city. The old Exchange Hotel building is now undergoing a change in the front. A bunch of painters are at work today with brushes and are going to transform the outer appearance of the building into a new looking one. On the inside of the lower floor of this building which is occupied by Mr.
Umland as a bowling alley and J. E.
Simpson as a cold drink stand and a cigar store, these gentlemen are also joining in the line. Mr. Umland has had his alleys refinished and coated with wax so as to make them practically new. Simpson has installed an electric carborator which gives him one of the best equipped fountains in the city. I'll tell you we are all doing something for Bryan.Father—"What do you have that little dude running after you for? I hope you don't think him the real thing!" Daughter—"No, father; not the real thing; only what you'd call the chaser."—Yonkers Statesman.Final Reduction on all

FREE MAIL DELIV-ERY IS ASSUREDThrough Efforts of Secretary McElroy and Senator Culberson We Have Assurance of Service Nov. 1.Since the arrival of Mr. W. A. Mc-Elroy, the Commercial Secretary, in the city of Bryan he has had one great thing on his mind, for the city of Bryan, and that was free mail delivery. On the 31st of July he fired his first gun in the form of a letter to the postoffice department at Washington, immediately following same up with letters and telegrams to Senator C. A. Culberson and on yesterday afternoon, which was a little less than thirty days, he received the following telegram from Senator Culberson:Washington, D. C., Aug. 24, '16.
MR. W. A. McELROY,Sec'y. Bryan and Brazos County Commercial Association, Bryan, Texas.Your telegram of the 21st. inst. relative to city delivery service at Bryan was promptly received and I took the matter up again with the Post Office Department. I am just in receipt of a letter from the Postmaster General dated today in which he says: "Careful consideration has been given to the question of establishing city delivery service at Bryan, Texas regarding which you wrote on the 3rd inst. and have called at the department personally several times and I am pleased to state that a representative of the department will be directed to visit Bryan as soon as possible for the purpose of assisting the postmaster in laying out the carriers routes and making proper preserva-tions for the inauguration of the service on Nov. 1st, 1916. In view of the keen interest you have manifested in this matter it gives me great pleasure to advise you that the department has determined to establish this additional mail service for the benefit of the people of Bryan."(Signed) A. S. BURLESON.
I congratulate Bryan on the establishment of this service and am glad to have been instrumental in securing it.

C. A. CULBERSON.

While it might be an admitted fact that it will be impossible for the citizens of Bryan to meet all requirements of the department by this time, it is a fact that the service will be established on November 1st, and the citizens will be given a certain length of time to finish meeting these requirements and we venture to say they will be met.The Eagle congratulates Mr. Mc-Elroy and Senator Culberson on getting this matter through so quickly and when once established the citizens will find city mail delivery to be among the greatest conveniences they have ever known.Every word that God puts into your heart for another will find someone ready to receive it.—Francis E. Clark."Your husband is worse? Did you forget the medicine?" "So as not to forget it I gave him the whole bottle at once."—Browning's Magazine.Men are but children of a larger growth.—Dryden.

THUMB MASHED OFF.

Mr. J. O. W. Sanders of Benchley, who is manager of the Lee Cortme-lla gin, located near Stone City, happened to a very painful accident yesterday afternoon when he got his right thumb caught in a cog wheel and the end of same was mashed off.
Mr. Sanders had this member tied up in a small rag and was showing one of his men something about the machinery when the rag was caught in a frazzel hanging to same and jerked in the cog. He was in Bryan today and said he suffered considerable last night, but was still on the job.Dear tender eyes, dear loving eyes, T'ward Heaven lies your way.
—Francesca Miller.

STRAY SONG AND STORY.

The Wind and the Sea.

The sea is a jovial comrade, He laughs wherever he goes;
His merriment shines in the dimpling lines
That wrinkle his hale repose; He lays himself down at the feet of the sun,
And shakes all over with glee,
And the broad-backed billows fail faint on the shore, In the mirth of the mighty sea.But the wind is sad and restless, And cursed with an inward pain; You may hark as you will, by valley or hill,But you hear him still complain.
He wails on the barren mountains,
And shrieks on the wintry sea; He sobs in the cedar, and moans in the pine,
And shudders all over the aspen tree.Welcome are both their voices, And I know not which is best—The laughter that slips from the ocean's lips.Or the comfortless wind's unrest.
There's a pang in all rejoicing, A joy in the heart of pain,
And the wind that saddens, the sea that gladdens,
Are singing the selfsame strain!
